

SERTUC
in association with Go London Tours
www.golondontours.com

Women in the Frame

at the National Portrait Gallery
Thursday 4th September 2014, 5.00pm

Through artists and sitters at the National Portrait Gallery, discover the fascinating journey of women in Britain from the Tudors to the present day. Our Blue Badge Guide Rachel Kolsky will be profiling regal monarchs, social campaigners, medical innovators and society hostesses as well as the sculptors and artists.

Her favourite portraits include Stella Isaacs, Amy Winehouse, Ellen Terry, Lady Ottoline Morrell and Radclyffe Hall.

Places limited to 20. Book now!

Tickets: £5.00 per person

Meeting Place: National Portrait Gallery, St Martin's Place, London, WC2H 0HE. Meet downstairs by the theatre, locker room and toilets.

Note that groups have access to their own free-of-charge cloakroom and Rachel will provide the code on your arrival.

Timing: Assemble from 4.45pm for a prompt 5.00pm start

To book your place contact:

Joanne Adams, SERTUC at

jadams@tuc.org.uk / 020 7467 1218