

Anthony Walker Memorial Lecture

Friday 17th October 2014

The Broadway Theatre, Barking IG11 7LS

6:30 – 8:45pm

An event hosted in conjunction with the Walker family and the Anthony Walker Foundation to keep Anthony's memory alive and continue the fight against racist violence

With a contribution from Dr Gee Walker

SPEAKERS:

Baroness Oona King

Shadow Education Spokesperson in the House of Lords, writer and Channel 4 diversity executive

Yasmin Alibhai-Brown

Columnist for The Independent and other newspapers

Jeremy Crook OBE

Director Black Training Enterprise Group

Christine Blower, NUT General Secretary

Max Hyde, NUT President

A music performance

The lecture is FREE to attend but booking is essential.

For more information please email: AWL@nut.org.uk

