Autism in the Workplace - Part 1

This one day briefing is for all union reps, officers and members who want to find out more about the Autistic Spectrum (including Asperger Syndrome) and become more confident in dealing with related issues in the workplace. The day will consist of a mixture of presentations and activities, speakers to include John McDonnell MP on autism, politics and the labour movement, and Simpson Millar on the legal aspects.

Please note - this briefing is not aimed at people whose work is with clients with autism, but for trade unionists who are organising and representing members in the workplace.
